A MESSAGE FROM PASTOR GARY SIMPSON

“The Moments Of Life”

Last Thursday I returned to work after a trip to Virginia where we welcomed our tenth grandchild; a baby boy named Cyrus. On Saturday I performed a wedding and watched a young couple celebrate the beginning of a lifetime together. On Monday I did the funeral of a 96 year old woman. It was a bit of an emotional roller coaster experiencing three of life's most touching moments in such a short period of time. My life, like yours, is so busy filled with work; chores, problems to be solved and decisions to be made. Being part of these three events helped me see some important things more clearly.

-It's amazing to discover how much love you can have for a person just hours after they come into this world.

-To be born into a loving family in a safe, free and prosperous nation is a blessing and should be appreciated.

-Finding love and making a commitment to share your life together is one of the biggest moments of your life. The author of Ecclesiastes got it right when he said “Two are better than one..”

-God displayed His infinite wisdom, knowledge and love when He instituted the family. It is a perfect design.

-Life is incredibly short and should be lived and enjoyed to the fullest every day.

-You will leave a legacy when your life in this world ends. It's wise to build that legacy intentionally.

-God is good and He is present in the good times and the bad. He should always be acknowledged.

My little trip to Virginia is over and I'm back on the treadmill of daily work, plunged right back into the thick of things almost as if I'd never been away. But I've seen too much to remain unaffected. A birth, a wedding and a funeral have reminded me that I need to enjoy the moments that I am blessed with everyday.
